In accordance with the Bail Reform Act, 18 U.S.C. § 3142(f), the Government moved for detention in this case. Defendant Correa-Jaen waived his right to a detention hearing. Written Statement of Reasons for Detention

I find that the accusations in the indictment and the pretrial services report establish by a preponderance of the evidence that no condition or combination of conditions will reasonably assure the appearance of the defendant as required.

I conclude that the following factors specified in 18 U.S.C. § 3142(g) are present and are to be taken into account:

1. Defendant Correa-Jaen is a 25 year old citizen of Peru. He has been married three years to Danielle Correa. He reports no employment history.
2. Defendant Correa-Jaen is presently accused by indictment of illegal reentry following deportation in violation of 18 U.S.C. § 1326.
3. Defendant Correa-Jaen was deported after being convicted of an aggravated felony. He has prior felony convictions for aggravated kidnapping and theft and a conviction for evading arrest.
4. The Bureau of Immigration and Customs Enforcement has placed an immigration hold on defendant's status while in the United States.
5. There is no condition or combination of conditions of release which would assure the appearance of the defendant in court. Detention is ordered.

Directions Regarding Detention

It is therefore ORDERED that the defendant is committed to the custody of the Attorney General or his designated representative for confinement in a corrections facility separate, to the extent practicable, from persons awaiting or serving sentences or being held in custody pending appeal. The defendant shall be afforded a reasonable opportunity for private consultation with defense counsel. On order of a court of the United States or on request of an attorney for the Government, the person in charge of the corrections facility shall deliver the defendant to the United States Marshal for the purpose of an appearance in connection with all court proceedings.

Signed at Houston, Texas, this 22nd day of June, 2005.
